mr. Sharp wanted it referred to the city attorney.

Mr. Richards said the relinquishment given had been referred to attorneys whom he supposed represented the canal company. He saw no safe way in which to give any deed, save in the way it had been given. He would not recede from this proposition. He objected to it being again, referred to him.

Mr. Roberts said it was plain what the company wanted. They had no title to the mayor said he wanted to say something. He was not a member of the water company, but he liked to see justice and reason. He knew that the members of the city council had pleaded for the purchase of the rights of the canal company.

Mr. Roberts bristled up, and denied that the mayor knew anything about the mater.

Mr. Roberts again denied it, and insisted that the mayor did not know what he was talking about.
